Listen Up

Bis

What once was a riot is now a slogan
It never really talks about us
Misappropriation of real anger
You never really thought about power, listen upThis is the real power
So listen up doubters
This is the real power
So listen upI don't want to hear boys sing about girls
In the way that makes them an enigma
It's just 'cause they can't talk and say their feelings
No wonder we are stuck in the darkThis is the real power
So listen up doubters
This is the real power
So listen upDid you hear a word I said
(Listen up, listen up, listen up, yeah)
Wise up boy, time's at it's end
(Listen up, listen up, listen up, yeah)You had it, you lost it, so do it again
You never really thought about us
I am a boy, but I'm a feminist
It's not a contradiction in terms, listen upThis is the real power
So listen up doubters
This is the real power
So listen upD'you know it's offensive to hear you say that
You never really thought about us
I'm sick of the sexists, but I'm not scared
I'm a boy but at least I'm comfortableThis is the real power
So listen up doubters
This is the real power
So listen upDid you hear a word I said
(Listen up, listen up, listen up, yeah)
Wise up boy, time's at it's end
(Listen up, listen up, listen up, yeah)Because the power to riot is anger united
