Holy Water

Laurel

I am alone,
I am alone in the shadows of the stars
I'm getting older and this world seems so far
Breathe, swallow me in the street holiday
I need a vacation from this declaration of the end
Maybe it's time
To cross the finish lineYou won't wait, let go
I need to say, I need to call
I was swimming in holy water
Water, holy water!
Now I'm drowning down the river,
Down the river
Down the riverI was clean,
Set me free in the valley of the butterflies
I'm still to young to recognize the devil
Deep I felt deep in the sun
Burns my eyes
I need the revelation
Got a premonition of the endYou won't wait, let go
I need to say, I need to call
I was swimming in holy water
Water, holy water!
Now I'm drowning down the river,
Down the river
Down the river
I was swimming in holy water
Water, holy water!
Now I'm drowning down the river,
Down the river
Down the river
