Silent Rage

Bullet 5

Refuse to see the misery
Don't you hear the crying souls
Refuse to give a helping handYou give me no choice
But to show you the world around you
Show you a life in pain
There is a war going on here
Right before your eyes...I wonder why, you can't deny it
The silent rage going on right now
Don't walk away, you need to stay
For silent rage won't be silent,
Silent no more..Refuse to see the sadness
Don't you see the bleeding hearts
Refuse to give them second thoughts
You give me no choice but to show you....
