Abandon All Ships

Your life is a lie everything they told you open your eyes
look at your life
you're just waiting to die you're fucking meaningless you lost your soul
the path you're on is not your own you're living a lie with the devil on my shoulder and God as my witness
I am sorry for all my sins
too bad karma has no forgiveness karma is a bitch and it is coming to collect save your fucking souls there is no time to repent i've never felt more alone i made peace with my demons who call me their home pray for release
i know it haunts you inside free me from the voices that trap me in my mind with the devil on my shoulder
and God as my witness
too bad karma has no forgiveness if the path you're on is not your own remember not to go down it alone you're living a lie with the devil on my shoulder
and God as my witness
