Re-Ignite

Becko

Nothing outside
Stronger inside
Strangers since yesterday

By the moonlight
we need to believe
that we could be fine

Waiting all night
'Till the sunshine
Face to face
Again and again

Waiting all night
'Till the sunshine
Face to face
Again and again

So we could re-ignite
We could re-ignite
We could re-ignite
We could re-ignite

We could re-ignite
We could re-ignite
We could re-ignite

Oh
Oh
Oh

We could re-ignite

Nothing outside
Stronger inside
Strangers since yesterday

By the moonlight
we need to believe

that we could be fine

Waiting all night
'Till the sunshine
Face to face
Again and again

Waiting all night
'Till the sunshine
Face to face
Again and again

So we could re-ignite
We could re-ignite
We could re-ignite
We could re-ignite

We could re-ignite
We could re-ignite
We could re-ignite

Oh
Oh
Oh

We could re-ignite
