

Wheels Within Wheels

Cynic

Sleep away these dreams
I'm burying angels under my feet
And I can't explain why love
Has to stamp the ground
Is it so that our broken hearts
Will never make another sound
So we cry while the baby screams smile
We hide while the tyrants breathe light
And the wheels within the wheels roll by
Silence me again
Keep me at bay from words
That I've said these are the days
When Mars is closer than the sun
So we cry while the baby screams smile
We hide while the tyrants breathe light
And the wheels within the wheels roll by
Bye, bye I'll paint the sand
