

Hello

Big Tymers

Ladies and gentlemen, see it's like
Hello, hello, hello
Hello, hello
See baby
Hello, hello, hello
Hello, hello Now, I been trying to fuck with you since 7th grade
But I didn't want to fuck with you, 'cause you wasn't paid
By the time I got to tenth grade baby I was pushing dimes
And who would ever think you would get paid off for saying rhymes Now, I fucked you and your sister too
My auntie and my cousin Boo
But I think I should let you go
Tell me, why you don't love me no more You got a lot money now you think your shit don't smell
But you wouldn't accept my calls when I went to jail
Now, I been waiting for you everyday
But I here messy shit from niggas around the way Now, I kept the pussy on lock till you got out
But what about the freaky shit that you done with your mouth
Nigga I hate your guts, boy you ain't shit
Well, I feel the same way about you stankass scandal's bitch
