

Kickin'

Tricky

Drummer : One, two, three, four

Tricky and Cia Berg :

I wanna give birth to your baby, baby

Scream all night long

Exercise our breathing so they hear it in Vietcong

Untangle my umbilical

There's no need to be political

Let's not get too serious

Just try to stay predictable

Cos I....

All :

I can't help that I think you're really kickin'

I can't help that I think you're really kickin'

I can't help that I think you're really kickin'

I can't help..

I think you're really...

I think you're really...

Kickin'

Tricky and Cia Berg :

I met you on a Tuesday

Or maybe was it Wednesday

You befriended me, defended me

Shortly after you offended me

I asked you "What's your name?"

I looked at you the same

If there a possibility

That you could take on my fertility

All :

I can't help that I think you're really kickin'

I can't help that I think you're really kickin'

I can't help that I think you're really kickin'

I can't help..

I think you're really...

I think you're really...

Kickin'

Tricky :

Can't you feel that my climax isn't topical

My physical biological isn't logical

It's astronomical
All : I can't help that I think you're really kickin'
