

Ways I'm Feeling U

Javier

Maybe it's your eye, girl
It's something 'bout the way they shine
Maybe it's the feeling
Of your skin pressed up against mine
Maybe it's the taste of your lips
Or the sway of your hips that makes me stay a long
I really can't tell you what it is
But I'm about to lose control
Now I know you can have any man
And I'll never take you for granted
So let go, whatever you need
Girl, you know you can have it
Let me count the ways I'm feeling you
Sometimes it's the little things you do
The way you lick your lips and call me, Boo
Girl, it's so amazing, I just can't explain it
Let me count the ways you turn me on
For when I crave your body when your gone
So I put these words into a song 'cause I had to say it
Girl, I bless the day that your mama made you
Maybe it's the way every head turns
When you walk in, yeah
Maybe it's that when you smile I see
The cutest dimples in on your chin
Baby, 'cause your love is so unreal
The way it makes me feel, I can't get enough
And baby, it's the way you breath a sigh of relief
When you see I'm still there when you wake up
I know you can have any man
And I never take you for granted
Just let go, whatever you need
Girl, you know you can have it
Let me count the ways I'm feeling you
Sometimes it's the little things you do
The way you lick your lips and call me, Boo
Girl, it's so amazing, I just can't explain it
Let me count the ways you turn me on
For when I crave your body when your gone
So I put these words into a song 'cause I got to say it
Girl, I bless the day that your mama made you
It's the taste of your lips, the sway of your hips
It's the that you move when I touch you like this
It's the way that you smile, your sex appeal, your style
Don't stop what you're doing 'cause you're driving me wild
Now I know you can have any man
And I never take you for granted
Just let go, whatever you need
You know you can have it
Let me count the ways I'm feeling you
Sometimes it's the little things you do
The way you lick your lips and call me Boo

Girl, it's so amazing I just can't explain it
Let me count the ways you turn me on
The way I crave your body when your gone
So I put these words into a song 'cause I got to say it
Girl, I bless the day that your mama made you
Let me count the ways I'm feeling you
Sometimes it's the little things you do
The way you lick your lips and call me Boo
Girl, it's so amazing I just can't explain it
