

Hot Tonight

Tom Rush

Well, it's gonna get hot tonight,
The moon is shining bright,
Well, I can tell by the size of the stars in your eye
It's gonna get hot tonight. C'mon let's go downtown,
C'mon let's mess around,
Put your hair up right and wear your dress too tight,
It's gonna get hot tonight. It's gonna get hot tonight,
The moon is shining bright,
Put your hair up right and wear your dress too tight
It's gonna get hot tonight. You can hear that tomcat howl,
He's out and on the prowl,
He's gonna fuss and fight and scratch and bite,
It's gonna get hot tonight. It's gonna get hot tonight,
The moon is shining bright,
Gonna fuss and fight and scratch and bite,
And it's gonna get hot tonight. Well, it's scotch 'n' soda so fine,
Gin and tonic, sublime!
What could be sweeter than a Marguerita,
It's gonna get hot tonight. Yes, yes! So c'mon and clap your hands,
C'mon and stomp your feet,
It won't be frostin' up in Boston,
Be a big flamb in old LA,
Gonna be rockin' in Conshohocken,
Downright sweaty in New York City,
And it's gonna get hot tonight. Yes, it's gonna get hot tonight,
The moon is shining bright,
We got the blues all on the run,
Gonna sing and dance til the rising sun,
Have some fun 'til the police come,
And it's gonna get hot tonight.
