

Now That I'm Older

Sufjan Stevens

It's different now I think
I wasn't older yet, I wasn't wise, I guess
Somewhere I lost whatever else I had
I wasn't over you, I see it run inside itself And then I called you out
I'm not such older than I was
Feeling it so much righter now And then I woke myself, confused
Your dress comes down to you
Don't get it wrong, don't get excited
I wanted so much to be at rest
Now that I'm older, so be it so of love The silent man comes down
All dressed in radiant colors
You see it for yourself
To demonstrate my love for you, you I thought I was so in love
Some say it wasn't true
Now that I'm older, now that I'm older
Now that I'm older, now that I'm older There's so much travel
And now that I'm older
Someone else can see it for myself
So much travel, yeah
Now that I'm older
