Lonely Tears

Lafee

She's reached the top
And she won't stop
Yes, she made it
Finally made it
The world's her stage
It's what she wants
Number one
Rock and roll heaven
24/7She aint got no questions
So scared of the answersAwake at night when the emptiness comes
What ever happened to the child she was, it's dead and goneHer Lonely Tears are falling in the rain
Her Lonely Tears, and they won't see her pain
Her tears are falling in the dead of night
She just wants to get out of this so-called life
Her Lonely Tears are falling in the rain
Her Lonely Tears will be lost again
Her tears are falling cause she's living the life
There's a side of the story she's supposed to hideShe's all the rage
In a golden cage
Keep on smiling
Just keep on smiling
The show goes onThe perfect doll
She's owned by all
What happened to heaven
24/7No one knows how she feels trapped inside this dream
Awake at night when the emptiness comes
What ever happened to the child she was, it's dead and goneHer Lonely Tears are falling in the rain
Her Lonely Tears, and they won't see her pain
Her tears are falling in the dead of night
She just wants to get out of this so-called life
Her Lonely Tears are falling in the rain
Her Lonely Tears will be lost again
Her tears are falling cause she's living the life
There's a side of the story she's supposed to hideHer Lonely Tears are falling in the rain
Her Lonely Tears, and they won't see her pain
Her tears are falling in the dead of night
She just wants to get out of this so-called life
Her Lonely Tears are falling in the rain
Her Lonely Tears will be lost again

Her tears are falling cause she's living the life
There's a side of the story she's supposed to hideAll the rage
In a golden cage
Keep on smiling
Just keep on smiling
