

Purple Sky

Kid Rock

We kept apart and connected by the same stretch of road
Neglected the truth and refused to grow old
It started a stream but then the levee fell
When the rainmaker had some extra seeds to sell I just wanna drink 'til I'm not thirsty
I just wanna sleep 'til I'm not tired
I just wanna drive 'til I run out of highway
Into the purple sky, oh yeah I just thought I'd call to see what's going on Did the hills all flatten out since I've been gone?
Are the fields all painted up in red and blue?
Are you thinking of me the times I'm thinking of you? I just wanna drink 'til I'm not thirsty
I just wanna sleep 'til I'm not tired
I just wanna drive 'til I run out of highway
Into the purple sky But if I'm gonna live until I'm 50
I'm gonna need you by my side
'Cause I don't wanna dance without you with me
Into the purple sky Living like a soulless pirate
Somewhere lost at sea
Wondering if I ever make it home
Will you come back to me? Oh yeah Could we dream up a reason for a rendezvous?
I'm back in town and I got nothing to do
We could drive all day with the top let down
We could stay in tonight or we could wreck this town I just wanna drink 'til I'm not thirsty
I just wanna sleep 'til I'm not tired
I just wanna drive 'til I run out of highway
Into the purple sky But if I'm gonna live until I'm 50
I'm gonna need you by my side
'Cause I don't wanna dance without you with me
Into the purple sky, oh yeah Uh huh, uh huh, uh huh, huh, huh, into the purple sky
Uh huh, uh huh, uh huh, huh, huh, into the purple sky
Uh huh, uh huh, uh huh, huh, huh, into the purple sky
Uh huh, uh huh, uh huh, huh, huh, into the purple sky
Ooh yeah
