Predicament

Greg Graffin

Don't pretend that you don't see it
Yeah, what's going on
Yay, all around
Don't even try to tell me
That what we do is right,
Why do we have to fight
But when you reach the gates of Heaven
And He's waiting there for you
There is no time for excuses
What the hell you gonna do
Yeah, yeah, yeah,
Yeah, yeah...
And there's a way and we can find it
Yeah, oh, baby, rise
That we can realize
We've done it all wrong,
We've done it all wrong
Yeah, but there's a way

That we can all just get along...
But when you reach the gates of Heaven
And He's waiting there for you
There is no time for excuses
What the hell you gonna do
Yeah, yeah, yeah,
Yeah, yeah, hmm...
So just follow me
And we'll be right on time
We'll have lived love,
Sing it one more time...
But when you reach the gates of Heaven
And He's waiting there for you, oh,
And there's no time for excuses,
Yeah, yeah,
What the hell you gonna do
Yeah,
Yeah, yeah, yeah...
