

Pretty Diamonds (Ft. Chris Brown)

Young Jeezy

[Intro: Jeezy & (Chris Brown)]

Yeah, uh, yeah

(Oh-oh-oh, it's Breezy and Young Jeezy)

Yeah, yeah, trey

(Oh-oh)

Yeah, uh, yeah, yeah

(Oh you blew)[Hook: Jeezy & Chris Brown]

You look better than some pretty diamonds

You look better than some pretty diamonds

You lookin' better than some pretty diamonds

Spendin' all my time and money

Girl just look where you at

All of them shoes and bags

Poppin' them tags, spendin' money on your ass

You lookin' better than some pretty diamonds

You look better than some pretty diamonds

You lookin' better than some pretty diamonds

Leave what you want, you know I ain't gotta lie

You know diamonds are a girl's best friend[Verse 1: Jeezy]

Woke up to a bag I might just go and splurge today

Called this little baddie up, pulled up on the Åndale

She got the type charisma, make the hardest nigga shy

I said she got the type charisma, make the lamest nigga try

And you know she independent just like that Boosie song

When we 'bout to set it off, we like to throw that Boosie on

Fuck that girl all on my safe, fuck that girl all in my Wraith

Even in the Caddy truck, I'm throwin' boxes on my waist

Bitch you know who you fuckin' with? Bitch it's Mr. Make It Happen

All these pretty jewels and shiny shit, I didn't get that rappin'

Nigga anythin' and everythin' is sexy 'bout this broad

Look I gotta pace myself, can't bust too quick, so help me God[Hook: Jeezy & Chris Brown]

She look better than some pretty diamonds

You look better than some pretty diamonds

You lookin' better than some pretty diamonds

Spendin' all my time and money

Girl just look where you at

All of them shoes and bags

Poppin' them tags, spendin' money on your ass

You lookin' better than some pretty diamonds

You look better than some pretty diamonds
You lookin' better than some pretty diamonds
Leave what you want, you know I ain't gotta lie
You know diamonds are a girl's best friend[Verse 2: Jeezy]
The devil wears Prada and she be in that Louis too
You know her when you see her, she gon' be the coldest in the crew
Type to take your heart out and walk on it with red bottoms
Had a whole city talkin' 'bout, I think they ain't got 'em
She the type to say that she ain't fuckin' on the first night
I'm the type of nigga have her naked at the first light
Call me Mr. Delta, yeah I put her on the first flight
Once I work the left and then I hit her with that first right
I'm in my zone if I say so myself
I played the game with the cards I was dealt
Leave out the club then we go get a room
She leave when we done and I'm leavin' at noon
The sexiest thing 'bout her gotta be her confidence
And if I say I want it twice a week, then that's a compliment[Hook: Jeezy & Chris Brown]
You look better than some pretty diamonds
You look better than some pretty diamonds
You lookin' better than some pretty diamonds
Spendin' all my time and money
Girl just look where you at
All of them shoes and bags
Poppin' them tags, spendin' money on your ass
You lookin' better than some pretty diamonds
You look better than some pretty diamonds
You lookin' better than some pretty diamonds
Leave what you want, you know I ain't gotta lie
You know diamonds are a girl's best friend[Verse 3: Chris Brown]
On the road gettin' my money up
Ah, you thought that I wasn't man enough
Probably leave you, yeah
I gave you my love and you didn't, you didn't, you didn't
I know I, I know I threw this shit in your face
I was rippin' and runnin' them streets, I was havin' them babies
Never thought this could happen to me, God
Now my mind racin'
I never intended this to be, that was my last chance
I bought these diamonds just so you won't leave[Hook: Jeezy & Chris Brown]
You look better than some pretty diamonds
You look better than some pretty diamonds
You lookin' better than some pretty diamonds
Spendin' all my time and money
Girl just look where you at

All of them shoes and bags
Poppin' them tags, spendin' money on your ass
You lookin' better than some pretty diamonds
You look better than some pretty diamonds
You lookin' better than some pretty diamonds
Leave what you want, you know I ain't gotta lie
You know diamonds are a girl's best friend
