Cry

Alex Parks

Never thought you knew me
Never thought of you with me
Always fighting in the dark beforeNever got to tell you
I don't know what I mean to you
No need to explain anymoreBut I'd cry
I would die if I lost you
And I'd cryWhen I think about us
It's only me that comes between us
It's only me that closes the doorBut I'd cry
I would die if I lost you
And I'd cryAnd you know you held me up
Held me to the sun when I was yours
And I know I let you down
Let you down the day that I was goneBut I'd cry
I would die if I lost you
And I'd cryI'd cry
I would die if I lost you
And I'd cry
