A lot can happen in an instant
Changing always and forever
A lot can happen in an instant
Changing always and foreverWe should try sleeping with enemies
Pursuing sensations like machines
To feel false worth, act happy and mess up her makeup just to make up You're kissing the serpent's bowels
You're just another hand me down inside her merry go round
And if you see me, you see me like thisBreak my neck
Break my neck
Break my neck
Break my neckI will learn soon, the kiss of death is you
I will always, I will always, I will have you
I will learn soon, the kiss of death is you
I will always, I will always, I will have youI always learn the hardest way and fall furthest from you tooI will learn soon, the kiss of death is you
I will always, I will always, I will have you
I will learn soon, the kiss of death is you
I will always, I will always, I will have youA lot can happen in an instant
Changing always and forever
A lot can happen in an instant
Changing always and forever
A lot can happen in an instant
Changing always and forever
