

Slip

Lit

I should've called but it was late and you were sleeping, my dear
I would hate for you to hear what I was putting you through
I'm tryin' hard to be the man I know that you think, I am
I'm really glad you weren't there but now I wish you were here
    'Cuz we're so wonderful
        And so untouchable
And just when I thought it was under control
    Everything just starts to
The pillow burns, I toss and turn from all of the things, I say
    You should've known better than to ever listen to me
        'Cuz we're so wonderful
            And so untouchable
And just when I thought it was under control
    Everything just starts to
        Slip
        Right through my fingers
        Finding it's way to the tips
        Well I'll try and forget
        (Try and forget)
But all that I taste is your lips
    Cryin' and kissin' me
        We're so wonderful
        And so untouchable
You're the biggest part of me
    We're so wonderful
        And so untouchable
And just when I thought it was under control
    Everything
    Everything
        Slip
        (Slip)
        Right through my fingers
        Finding it's way to the tips
        Well I'll try and forget
        (Try and forget)
But all that I taste is your lips
    Cryin' and kissin' me
        Slip
        (Slip)

Right through my fingers
Finding it's way to the tips
Well I'll try and forget
(Try and forget)
But all that I taste is your lips
Cryin' and kissin' me
