

Guard Your Heart

1 Girl Nation

In the middle of this crazy, messed up world we live in Surrounded by voices pressuring us to give in Believe me, I get it
I know you wanna fit in
Everybody's telling you What you're missing
But don't listen
To anything but the truth Know your worth, 'cause you are priceless
More than gold, more than diamonds
Be the light inside the dark
Keep your faith and guard your heart It's where life, it's where love is
Every beat has a purpose
It holds everything you are
Above all else
Guard your heart Your heart
Your heart
Your heart Guard your heart Maybe you feel all alone like something's missing
And all of your friends have found their Prince Charming Believe me, I get it
You're so tempted
To settle and give up on love But it's in God's timing
You can't rush it
Don't believe you're not enough Know your worth, 'cause you are priceless
More than gold, more than diamonds
Be the light inside the dark
Keep your faith and guard your heart It's where life, it's where love is
Every beat has a purpose
It holds everything you are
Guard your heart I'm not saying to build a wall
Just to trust that God won't let you fall I'm not saying to build a wall
Just to trust that God's in control of it all Know your worth, 'cause you are priceless
More than gold, more than diamonds
Be the light inside the dark
Keep your faith and guard your heart It's where life, it's where love is
Every beat has a purpose
It holds everything you are
Guard your heart Your heart
Your heart
Your heart Guard your heart
