Breaking My Own Heart

Duffy

I rushed right in just like a fool
So struck down by you
I didn't know what to do, oohI started on breaking my own heart
Breaking my own heart
Breaking my own heart, yeah
I started on breaking my own heart
Breaking my own heartYeah, I was frozen by the pain
I tried to reach out to you but I felt so ashamedSo, I kept on breaking my own heart
Breaking my own heart
Breaking my own heart
I kept on breaking my own heart
Breaking my own heartSave me, somebody save me
From this misery, love is killing me, please save me
I need saving, won't somebody save me
From this misery? Love is killing me, ooh, save meI hung on to every word you say
In search of a sign, boy
You felt the same wayBut it was only me breaking my own heart
Breaking my own heart
Breaking my own heart
If I keep on breaking my own heart
Breaking my own heartSave me, won't somebody save me?
From this misery, love is killing me, save me
I need saving, won't somebody save me
From this misery? Love is killing me, ooh, save meOoh, save me, I said save me
From this misery, love is killing me
Please save me
