

Wave

David Sylvian

It seems that I remember
I dreamed a thousand dreams
We'd face the days together
No matter what they'd bringA strength inside like I'd never known
Opened the door to life and let it goThis sun may shine forever
Upon the back of love
A kingdom raised from ashes
And held within your armsAnd should the rain break through the trees?
We'll find a shelter there and never leaveI'll run to you
Nothing stands between us now
Nothing I can lose
This light inside can never dieAnother world just made for two
I'll swim the seas inside with you
And like the waves without a sound
I'll never let you downUpon a wave of summer
A hilltop paved with gold
We shut our eyes and made
The promises we holdA will to guide and see us through
I'd do it all again because of youI'll run to you
Nothing stands between us now
Nothing I can lose
This light inside can never dieAnother world just made for two
I'll swim the seas inside with you
And like the waves without a sound
I'll never let you downI'd tear my very soul to make you mine
