Born To Love You

Phil Perry

You walked into my life and changed the balance of my days
With your eyes, they're sayin' that I alone [Incomprehensible] all mine
But still, something's very wrong, sugar, no I can't just tag along
Though I want to stay, baby, I must find a reason to delayWhen I pursued, you played the game, I know
But if I keep my feeling strong, I'll find the song you sing
Though I can't tell, we're world's apart and in my heart it's clear
The love has found a cloudy day, I'm here to say that I
I was born to love youSuch a lovely face with a warm and tender smile
Though I want you so, somethin' deep inside keeps sayin'
(No, no, no)
Don't trust your heart, not this timeCan my mind be playin' games?
Am I so betrayed that my heart and mind
Can never be the same again?We're not the same, you played the game, I know
But if I keep my feelin' strong, I'll find the song you sing
Though I can't tell, we're world's apart and in my heart it's clear
That love has found a cloudy day, I'm here to say that I
I was born to love youYou oughta hear me when I say it
I was born to love you, always love you
We're not the same, you played your game, I know
(I know)But if I keep my feelin' strong, I'll find the song you sing
We're world's apart and in my heart it's clear
That love has found a cloudy day, I'm here to say that I
I was born to love you, that's why I was bornJust to love you, just to squeeze you
You know that I was born to love you
