

Envy

Armored Saint

I see you hand in hand
With my worst enemy
I can't show the anger
That I feel or the jealousy About all I can do is watch
And wish that he hadn't caught
What I had my hands almost on
But now I'm so far gone Envy I feel, envy I feel, envy I feel I could end things really quick
With a bullet right to his head
But she was the one who left me
So I should get you both instead But would I really be glad To know I gave her the sack
And be in prison for life
Over foolish spite Envy I feel, envy I feel
Envy I feel, no
Envy I feel, envy I feel
Envy I feel It's a waste envy I feel
To live with such haste envy I feel
For just a pretty face envy I feel
No more
