Time is Up

Sweet California

y comenta.
Everyday waking up and I'm thinking maybe you could be my hero But I'm running out of reasons I should stay
I keep givin', you keep breakin' all your promises are brittle
I get nothing from the empty words you sayNow we're comin' up to the end and your hangin' in by a thread
Need a fix so you make a mess on repeat inside my head
Oh you got me running back to a love that's in the past
You want one more chance but baby that one was the lastDon't you get it? don't you get it? Now I've had enough
Are you ready? are you ready? Cuz your time is up
No way to change my mind, we can't rewind
Are you ready? are you ready? Cuz your time is upThought it was better, we were together but I knew it wasn't working
Lost sigh of all the simple things I need
Stop starting, never recharning, always fighting over nothing
Overacting like we're in a movie, yeahNow we're comin' up to the end and your hangin' in by a thread
Need a fix so you make a mess on repeat inside my head
Oh you got me running back to a love that's in the past
You want one more chance but baby that one was the lastDon't you get it? don't you get it? Now I've had enough
Are you ready? are you ready? Cuz your time is up
No way to change my mind, we can't rewind
Are you ready? are you ready? Cuz your time is upI stayed honest
I gave you all you wanted
You're just too late, you lost it
You lost itDon't you get it? don't you get it? Now I've had enough
Are you ready? are you ready? Cuz your time is upDon't you get it? don't you get it? Now I've had enough
Are you ready? are you ready? Cuz your time is up
No way to change my mind, we can't rewind
Are you ready? are you ready? Cuz your time is upDon't you get it? don't you get it?
Had enough
Are you ready? are you ready?
This time is up
No way to change my mind, we can't rewind
Are you ready? are you ready? Cuz your time is up
