

Stare At the Sun

Revent

So pull us out of our fantasies
Cause we are awake and listening
Pull me into the fire
Cause I want to be awake

Iâ€™ll stand right here
Staring at the sun
Until my eyes burn

Canâ€™t blame the broken system
Iâ€™m so sick of hearing about how everyone else has failed you
Canâ€™t blame the politicians
Why donâ€™t you stop pointing your finger at everyone but yourself?

So tear down all these walls
And please donâ€™t you give up

So ill stand right here
Carried by the sound passing through it all

Canâ€™t blame the broken system
Iâ€™m so sick of hearing about how everyone else has failed you
Canâ€™t blame the politicians
Why donâ€™t you stop pointing your finger at everyone but yourself?

Coulda done anything
Coulda shouda woulda
But didnâ€™t do anything
Anything at all

Coulda done anything
Been a parking lot attendant
Or Andy Dickâ€™s lackey
Just fire up a bowl

Coulda done anything
Coulda been anyone
Why did you just stand there?
Wide awake

Canâ€™t blame the broken system
Iâ€™m so sick of hearing about how everyone else has failed you
Canâ€™t blame the politicians
Why donâ€™t you stop pointing your finger at everyone but yourself?
