Forget About You

Dierks Bentley

I'm gonna build a fire in the middle of July Burn your pictures and go for a drive Down to the river Watch the ink from your love letters fade Come back home and turn that old mattress over Pour out the whiskey try wakin' up sober Gonna change it all tonight Gonna do whatever it takes[Chorus] Yeah, cause I've lost weight and I've lost hair And I don't intend to ever go back there Drinkin' and a-thinkin' Bout a love that just wasn't true There's a good chance I'll end up insane Without enough sense to come in from the rain My mind might be that last thing you make me lose But I'll forget about youI heard that old Jones song just the other day 'Bout a man who took a broken heart to his grave But I'll be dammed If a memory's gonna lay me down I might be walkin' around with a head full of air Acting kind of crazy but I don't care
