

On my shoulders

Big Charlie

'm sorry
I'm sorry it took me so long you change me you change me cause i felt so wrong what people can't still forget is how you already own me we fall into all these regrets we fall when i loose control without counting consequence now i'm back
to your homewe still need to fight and cover all the peaces of our world we still need to feel and cover all the peaces of our bones why does it takes so longer if we live in our home?
why does it takes so longer?
how longer? how longer?i'm coming i'm coming there cause you feel alone i'm starving i'm starving cause i eat just woe
we fall into all these regrets
all the peaces of our world
why does it takes so longer
if we live in our home?
how longer? how longer? we still forget what i did we still feel the way we felt why does it takes so longer?
on my shoulders, on my shoulders
