My Awakening

Wide Eye Panic

Once you, well you thought to.
Treat a man just like your equal.
Such a simple task I know.
But instead you washed your hands in filth.
Now it's business as usual.

Even if all seems lost we don't have to let them win at all cost.
All you are and all you're fed was stripped from the hands of your fellow man.
Make a stand.
Freedom isn't free so why do we only pay?
I'll tell you a secret I?.

Once you, yeah well you fought to keep man just like your equal.
Such a simple task I know, I know it well.
But instead you chose to wash your hands in fucking filth my friend.
And now it's business as usual.

Even if all seems lost we don't have to let them win at all cost.
All you are is all you're fed and stripped from the hands of your fellow man.
Make a stand.
Freedom isn't free so why do you only pay?
I'll tell you a secret I?.

Don't give a damn about any more lies.
Don't give a damn about parallel lines.
You don't give a shit about the man on the street.
So we don't give a fuck about anything you preach.

You lack the way that a spirit surrounds me guiding my actions effortlessly.
You lack the way that it becomes-surrounding tempting your impulse to fuck everything.
You lack the way that I feel it inside.
It opens my eyes while making me blind.
You lack the way that it becomes-surrounding.
Tempting my impulse to fuck everything.

Fuck, fuck everything!
Fuck, fuck everything!
Fuck , fuck everything!
Fuck everything!
And fuck you!
