Saved

Kutless

You ask me, why I need this faith
I tell you, now it's the only way
To be set free from all your pain
You must accept these words I say, and I sayI need your focus just this day
Let me reveal to you a friend
He'll give you purpose and eternal life
He is the Christ and to Him I say, and I sayI know that You are the only way
To be saved from my infirmity
You shed Your blood
You gave Your love away
Oh, all to cover meI tell you now that He is the way
Jesus, You ransomed my frailty
Yes, I found I know that He is the truth
The truth, the life and the way, the wayI know that You are the only way
To be saved from my infirmity
You shed Your blood
You gave Your love away
Oh, all to cover meI cry out to You
With the love that fills my heart
I give my life to You
In faith I won't departOh, now won't you come and take Him in He'll be more than you could ever dream
It's Jesus Christ, in Him we trust
He is the truth, the life and the way
The way, the way, the way
To be savedI know that You are the only way
To be saved from my infirmity
You shed Your blood
You gave Your love away
Oh, all to cover meI cry out to You
With the love that fills my heart
I give my life to You
In faith I won't depart
But I know it'll be all right, okay
(Don't know)It'll be all right, okay
(Okay, no)
Okay, okay, all right, okay
It's all safe, it's all safe, okay, no
