Too Hot (feat. Sean Spellz)

A.Tone Da Priest

[Hook]
This is too hot, so hot that the flame you cant believe
Just moving through your body in your eyes its all you see
To ash youll be, eternal burning where is heaven at for me
Im burning, where is heaven at for me?
[A.Tone Da Priest]
The last of me has burned away
And there is no place left for my soul to stay
Just drifting away into eternity with nothing on my mind
Cause the flame claimed it all and me too
Physical ash and being lewd and crass cause he Took that final blast, selfish for eternity, the burning he shall sit
Some say it was the curse of the beast, triple six
Your mind wished it into existence, so scripted
And we stay surprised, like the movie aint been seen yet
Like you wont make the bet that it burns away after your death
Money flies, time stays but all thats changed is your age
With no mind of your own, to one you are a slave
Grave digger wont you hear me, oh grave digger wont you hear my call
I bust it open and raise hell the fires all mine
The heat blinding sunshine, a star for higher minds
[Sean Spellz]
Its tough being all sober, dealing with society
If high didnt recognize some slow thinking, youd be dumb high to me
Ton lie to me, some try to be cool but get me heated
Dont want to hear you speak trick, not even one hi to me
We stay weeded, so slow folks dont stress me, get me too hot
We need dough yo, we smoke stay stress free, shit we too hot
Screw pop, who hot? You not, you got the style of a son of a son the game
You son of bitch, you son of gun, I must be son of flame
We move proper not a copper gonna move me from the game
From our lane, just some powder Cain, screw some fam over
Still a gram roller of the green, as a young teen
Chips I stole sober, but aint big deal if demon helps stole a soul bruh
[Outro]
Got too hot, my soul in flames (2x)
This is too hot
