After My Prayers

Immolation

I pray that I can see
Beyond this life tormenting me
Tempting from inside
Come hysteric thoughts of painSlowly I'm consumed into emptiness I fall
When my body's cold and dead
Will the feelings be the same
Will my kingdom comfort me of reject my languid soulStagnant cooling blood
Starts to coagulate
My body weakens and sinks
As my soul discorporateResurrected from the souls of the damned
Comes the fury of their dismayUngodly images unveiled to me
Creations from below
My body rot within it's grave
My soul now free to roamI begin to seek
What's been taunting me
My lifeless corpse
No longer blinding meMy incarnate life no more
My existence now deceased
Now what I am gone
I exist in miseryMy unpleasant renization
And my suffering begins
Salvation never reached
And my kingdom never foundStagnant cooling blood
Starts to coagulate
My body weakens and sinks
As my soul discorporateResurrected from the souls of the damned
Comes the fury of their dismayUngodly images unveiled to me
Creations from below
My body rot within it's grave
My soul forever roam
