

Something New

The Black Ghosts

A different time and place
Some new faces in my life is what I'm needing
I've grown old too fast and whole weeks pass
Without a single glimpse of meaning
And if disaster came at least there'd be a change
It's got to be better than sitting on this beach
I feel it there in front of me but in my present life of holding court
With scheming money grabbers it's getting further out of reach
So give me something new
Something to break through the normal
The things I have to do
To keep myself from falling out of view
A different way to walk some new words to talk
A climate change is what I'm needing
I've turned to the dark, I've ignored the spark
I've found ways to numb my feelings
But it's no good, behind my hood
Dreams of better days in better places
I feel it there in front of me but in my present life of holding court
With ungrateful pretenders it's getting further out of reach
So give me something new
Something to break through the normal
The things I have to do
To keep myself from falling out of view
So give me something new
Something to break through the normal
The things I have to do
To keep myself from falling out of view
So give me something new
Something to break through the normal
The things I have to do
To keep myself from falling out of view
