Nowhere Near

Summercamp

I don't want to waste your time
Make you hang around thinking you've done wrong
You can only wait for me
For so longBut I ain't coming over proving nothing
'Cause I know it's always something
And how you value
Your time aloneSo I'm out of here
'Cause I know I'm nowhere near
What you want, what you want
What you're looking forI don't want to make you smile
Only to see it all turn around
When you decide that I've just
Let you downAnd I ain't making up my mind just yet
How easy I forget
Just how you add to
My confusionSo I'm out of here
'Cause I know I'm nowhere near
What you want, what you want
What you're looking forIf I'm breaking your heart
You'll always know where mine got its start
It's better like this anyway
If your world has fallen apart
Maybe you'll find me in the dark
Searching for the right thing to say . . .
