

1977

Every Time I Die

Melt the glaciers inside my veins
Thaw my eyes, crack the glaze
Trapped under ice at a fathomless depth
But I know I exist I can see my breath Come up to the surface, the ice age has past
Hallelujah, it is over at last
A new day will follow a nuclear blast
Hallelujah, it is over at last
Crossed the great divide
To sleep where most would die
I'm on the lam for a fire theft
I wasn't here, we never met Our shadows spread forever but they don't weigh anything
Shake it off
I can't ever go back but I will take it when I leave
Shake it off
I'll be waiting with a suitcase when the devil comes for me. Shake it off One if by land, two if by sea
Life isn't ours, we are property of life
Life isn't ours, we are property of life
So, take what you can when you can while you can

Songwriters

Jordan Taylor Buckley, Keith Michael Buckley, Daniel Travis Davison, Stephen E. Micciche, Andrew John Williams Published by

Lyrics © BMG RIGHTS MANAGEMENT Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>