Less Talk More Rokk

Freezepop

the basement scene is dark and dusty the musty smell of stale air cobwebs dangle overhead people stumble down the stairs lets get this party started, yo the band are in the corner of the floor their songs are pretty kick-ass we're dancing like we've never danced beforethe music is loud
the kids are so young
all over the world
they wanna have fun
the music is so loud
it drowns out the talk
just give us more rokk
the music is loud
the night is so young
all over the world
we wanna have fun
the music gets louder
please dont call the cops
we just wanna rokkthe kitchen scene is damp and sticky they're lined up at the keg of PBR we're yelling conversations thru the floor you hear the keyboards and guitar Im getting kind of antsy
I just came up here to get some air This isnt where the musics at I guess Im going back down therethe music is loud
they wanna have fun

we just wanna rokkthe basement scene is hot and sweaty bodies packed from wall to wall
the band are tearing thru their set the encore is the best of all lets keep this party going, yo weve got nowhere else to be someone yells, "less talk more rokk" mostly unironicallythe music is loud
we just wanna rokk
