

Rebel

Nikki Flores

Little rush then you run
Tell me you want me but
Too busy acting tough
Just a touch and you're gone
Swear that you need me here
But you give in to fear Don't run away, it's never too late
There's always a way to remedy
Cure the pain, mend the breaks
I can be all you need
I'm not the enemy You make it impossible to get to your heart
As soon as I'm close is when you close the door
You're pushing me far away and making it hard
I know what you're going through, been hurt before
So let down your guard, I'll show you love
But you're still running like a rebel without a cause
You make it impossible to get to your heart
You're still running like a rebel without a cause It's so easy to go
Shut down and numb the hurt
Wish you could fight the urge
But it's hard that you know
Just let me take your hand
Show you I understand Don't run away, it's never too late
Cause I can be all you need
I'm not the enemy You make it impossible to get to your heart
As soon as I'm close is when you close the door
You're pushing me far away and making it hard
I know what you're going through, been hurt before
So let down your guard, I'll show you love
But you're still running like a rebel without a cause
You make it impossible to get to your heart
You're still running like a rebel without a cause
You're still running like a rebel without a cause You see it coming then you turn around and then you're gone
I try to slow you down and show you it's safe to love
But still you're running like a rebel without a cause Can't keep running away from Running away from it all
Like a rebel without a cause
[x2] Impossible You make it impossible to get to your heart
As soon as I'm close is when you close the door
You're pushing me far away and making it hard

I know what you're going through, been hurt before
So let down your guard, I'll show you love
But you're still running like a rebel without a cause
You make it impossible to get to your heart
You're still running like a rebel without a cause
You're still running like a rebel without a cause You see it coming then you turn around and then you're gone
I try to slow you down and show you it's safe to love
But still you're running like a rebel without a cause
