

You're Sensational

Frank Sinatra

I've no proof when people say
You're more or less aloof
But you're sensational I don't care if you are called
"The Fair Miss Frigidaire"
'Cause you're sensational Making love is quite an art
What you require is the proper squire
To fire your heart And if you'll say that one fine day
You'll let me come to call
We'll have a ball
