Story of My Life

The Code

Why do I feel so outside, looking in bruised and broken
Battle scars I get knocked down
Lick my wounds get up and stand in the line[Chorus:]
Wee all standing in a line, and it never enough time
When your two steps behind, youe always two steps behindCynical world with no commercials
Breading disguise of flamboyant lies
Factory built with no guarentee
Don wanna buy this don wanna stand in their line(Chorus)Don't want to, stand in your, don't want to stand in your line (2x)This is the story of my life (4x)
