

Success

Linda Perry

This is not the way it's
Supposed to be Spend my day in fear of all
It sets me free I beg your pardon
For what I do and say
I can hold myself to blame
But the sure remains the same Will success fail me?
Will it make me free?
What they tell me I should want?
Is it what I need? Hey mom, hey dad
The story went
Round the burning wheels of faith
It pays the rent Hey sister, hey brother
I had to choose
Choose between the win and lose
But what's the use? Will success fail me?
Will it make me free?
What they tell me I should want?
Is it what I need? Come march come april
Come may and june
Let the pounding seconds go
There's nothing I can do Will success fail me?
Will it make me free?
What they tell me I should want?
Is it what I need? (x 2) Is there something I can do?
