

Comin' Home

Tim McGraw

Say goodbye to Old Man Winter
Say hello to sweet springtime
'Cause I'm coming out of hiding
I'm gonna get it right this time After so long being frozen
It took a while to thaw me out
I spent too long not knowing
What love's supposed to be about Now I'm finding out [Chorus:]
It's a lot like coming home
From a long time walking out in the snow
Then I looked at you and knew I never knew nothing
And it broke this heart of stone
It's a lot like coming home Like a bird out on the harbor
That's been battered by the sea
I've been through some stormy weather
But you shine a light for me
Girl, you set me free [Chorus] Yeah Girl, I looked at you and knew I never knew nothing
And it broke this heart of stone
It's a lot like coming home
Coming home
Feels like I'm coming home, coming home, coming home
Coming home, coming home, coming home, coming home Oh baby, I'm coming home, coming home, coming home
Coming home, coming home, coming home, coming home I'm coming home (Coming home, coming home, coming home, coming home)
Coming home, coming home) (Coming home, coming home, coming home, coming home
Coming home, coming home) (Coming home, coming home, coming home, coming home
Coming home, coming home)
