Tell Me Where You Get It

Culture

Tell me that you'll wait
Tell me that you'll wait for me
I gotta come back some day so tell me that you'll wait for me
I'm leaving on a jetplane
So tell me that you'll wait for me

Once again we're facing a tough situation
No need to be bassing cause time we'll be wasting We've been through this type of thing before
When I stepped to the ride and you stood crying in the door
I really hate moments that turn out like these I'd sail the seven seas if I thought that I would ease
The discomfort we feel when we must part
There's not a man alive that wouldn't feel it in his heart
Living out a suitcase always on the move
I really appreciate the fact that you've always waited
And been ready and willing Supporting what I'm doing and how I'm feeling
Travelling all over may keep the bills paid
But I couldn't stand myself if our love was to fade
Over and over I dwell on this issue
Cause when I'm away I can't help but miss you

Tell me that you'll wait
Tell me that you'll wait for me
I gotta come back some day so tell me that you'll wait for me
I'm leaving on a jetplane
So tell me that you'll wait for me

Lyrics submitted by Aisha Immabu.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/