Choices

Graceful Closure

These voices in my head think they will beat me
To smother all what's left and to defeat me
We won't let it get the end of us tonight
We will vanquish every grief insightWe're not letting go
Of what we know we want
You can't hold us down
We're fighting for the choiceThere's war that never ends, emotions overload
My faith is forced with trends, with stress it bends, my mind explodes
There's two choices to be made, to drop or rise
We won't hold the noose, we'll hold our head up highI've fallen down
My fear has hit the ground screaming
Come and rescue me
Come and rescue me
