Camo Bikini

Danny Boone

she got a body like ooh woo
and she moves like hell yeah drinkin' on a bud light lookin' like just my type in that
dancin' in the moonlight lookin' likeÂ just my type in that little camo bikini

how'd mommy know she was hot like lava got a volleyball body booty bangin' thats when I forgot where I was I seen her from a far Carrie Underwood demeanor she was sippin' from a jar I was sittin' on the cooler by the creek with a beer in each hand checkin' out that copper tone tan she had a tramp stamp and a Georgia Jeep tattooed on her ankle gorgeously 11 on the 1 to 10 made her friends look like 5 it didn't make any sense how she was shakin' what her momma blessed her with by the lord she was gifted with yes sir wigglin' her hips to all summer long she shot gunned a brew and said who got the beer bong no she didn't cuz guess who does I wouldn't mind my truck gettin' stuck in that mud

drinkin' on a bud light lookin' like just my type in that
dancin' in the moonlight lookin' like just my type in that

when I spotted her I was sloppy like good God oh mighty that hotty she sippin' shine like she was asian sippin' socky (Sake') if get lucky She'll straddle me like a kawasaki
And i'll park my crotch rocket all in her hot pocket ass was asinine blessed with breastses finessin' this princess into undressin's gonna to take less aggressiveness and more kissin' an listenin'
whatever it takes cause I just want to reach around and play that g-string like a stand up bass she drives a Silverado drinks liquor out the bottle dirty south born and breed country as corn bread and if she talks to me I hit the lotto

drinkin' on a bud light lookin' like my type in that
dancin' in the moonlight lookin' like just my type in that

as the party started winding down ol girl was go'en strong she told me she was ridin' out and I should come along as we stepped Into her double wide I closed and locked the door and that camo bikini was laying on the floor
