Destroy the Runner

This, this was my call to your arms
Sounding silent alarms
Will you love me when you hear me lie?
This last timeI've seen a sea of change
This fleeting love that leaves me alone
Lift me now from this pain
You know the way to bring me homeWe've dimmed our lights past darkness
Hiding our way back from this
Swallowing every glimpse of our faithfulness
Who will guide us home when we cannot see?
The weak to follow, follow the leadIt's taking over our lives
As we live, as we dieI've seen a sea of change
This fleeting love that leaves me alone
Lift me now from this pain
You know the way to bring me homeAs we live, as we die
It's taking over our lives
As we live, as we die
It's taking over our livesI've seen a sea of change
This fleeting love that leaves me alone
Lift me now from this pain
You know the way to bring me homeAs we die
As we die
