Polar Opposites

Glasseater

So let me knock on this wood once more
I hope karma doesn't exist
Because if it does...
I'll be feeling it real soon on my hands and kneesPrevious adventures and these types of stories seem to feel the same
Cold and heartless, no emotions more than just a gameIn the past i've hurt so much
It seems only fair for me, for me to get crushed
But i'm crossing my fingers...
I won't lose what i havePrevious adventures and these types of stories seem to feel the same
Cold and heartless, no emotions more than just a gameAnd with you its a complete different book, polar opposites
Warm and passionate full of wonderful emotionsYou've turned a stone into an emerald
You made me forget the past
They say nothing lasts forever
But i really hope this lastsBut I've hoped whatever you do will last foreverPrevious adventures and these types of stories seem to feel the same
Cold and heartless, no emotions more than just a gameAnd with you its a complete different book, polar opposites
Warm and passionate full of wonderful emotions
