

Polar Opposites

Glasseater

So let me knock on this wood once more

I hope karma doesn't exist

Because if it does...

I'll be feeling it real soon on my hands and knees
Previous adventures and these types of stories seem to feel the same

Cold and heartless, no emotions more than just a game
In the past i've hurt so much

It seems only fair for me, for me to get crushed

But i'm crossing my fingers...

I won't lose what i have
Previous adventures and these types of stories seem to feel the same

Cold and heartless, no emotions more than just a game
And with you its a complete different book, polar opposites

Warm and passionate full of wonderful emotions
You've turned a stone into an emerald

You made me forget the past

They say nothing lasts forever

But i really hope this lasts
But I've hoped whatever you do will last forever
Previous adventures and these types of stories seem to feel the same

Cold and heartless, no emotions more than just a game
And with you its a complete different book, polar opposites

Warm and passionate full of wonderful emotions

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>