My Life For Yours

Killswitch Engage

It's all but the same, yet different
For far too long, the illusion falters
The illusion faltersSuffering, despite the struggle
Remaining hopeless, my life can no longer
My life can no longer, no longer be frozen, no longerTake my words as truth
I will never, never leave youIt must be now, we must resolve
Invoke the strength, turn the tide
Start right now, yeahTake my words as truth
I will never, never leave youThe winds of change will cleanse away
What still remains, let all doubts
And indecision pass awayTake my words as truth
(Take my words as truth)
I will never, never leave youMy life for yours
(Free me)
My (Longer)
Life
(My Life)
For
(For yours)
Yours, go
