Be Like You

Ed Sheeran

Happy days
That left us on the floor
And you breathe me
Till youÂ’re not feeling sure
Everything will brighten up
If we go to Brighton
IÂ’ll take you along the Pier
Everything will lighten up
If you feel too frightened
IÂ’ll make it disappear, dear

Darling, donÂ’t be nervous
IÂ’ll understand
If youÂ’ll let me go
I did this on purpose
Now, when IÂ’m missing you
IÂ’ll stop eating food
And IÂ’ll squeeze into a dress
So I can be like you
And then IÂ’ll see your bitterness
And why youÂ’re leaving too
Maybe, IÂ’ll put you to a test
And say that I love you
I think that I love you

Sunny days
That left my skin dark red
You squeeze me
Till these thoughts leave my head
If it gets too complicated
IÂ’ll give up and be frustrated
Can you see whatÂ’s wrong?
If you feel like youÂ’ve been hated
This loveÂ’s too overrated
See whatÂ’s going on, on

Darling, donÂ’t be nervous
IÂ’ll understand
If youÂ’ll let me go

I did this on purpose
Now, when IÂ’m missing you
IÂ’ll stop eating food
And IÂ’ll squeeze into a dress
So I can be like you
And then IÂ’ll see your bitterness
Maybe, IÂ’ll put you to a test
And say that I love you

Take me back to live at home
Take me back to Albert Road

Now IÂ’m missing you
IÂ’ve stopped eating food
And IÂ’ve squeezed into your dress
So I can feel like you
But then I saw your bitterness
And why you left me too
I thought IÂ’d put you to a test
And say that I love you
I think that I love you

And I stopped eating food
And I squeezed into your dress
So I could feel like you
But then I saw your bitterness
And say that I love you
Now it seems you loved me too
