

No Pressure (feat. Future)

French Montana

Choppa Choppa blang, he a coppa too
Ain't gonna say no names, he a rapper too You don't want no pressure, you don't want no pressure
You don't want no pressure, you don't want no pressure
You don't want no pressure, you don't want no
You don't want no pressure, you don't want no pressure
You don't want no pressure, you don't want no pressure
You don't want no pressure, you don't want no Hoppin' out foreign cars, 40 deep
Hundred thou' blowin' that in AOD
And that's why I'm the best, fuck with me
'Cause a nigga flip flop like he standin' on the beach
Hoppin' up stage, got my diamonds, dirty dancin'
You know I work dirty, got 'em higher than a parasail
Tell my other bitch I'm on my other bitch, yeah
I just do that shit to make my other bitch jealous
40 in the kitchen and then he whippin' up the dressin'
Every time you call, I be like, look, hold on, don't stress me
You know I talk the 9, like a motherfuckin' ferris wheel
You want it? You can get it if you wanna learn your lesson You don't want no pressure, you don't want no pressure
You don't want no pressure, you don't want no pressure
You don't want no pressure, you don't want no
You don't want no pressure, you don't want no pressure
You don't want no pressure, you don't want no pressure
You don't want no pressure, you don't want no Became friends with a dope head (dope head)
To be inside the mind of a dope head
How many crimes in a dope head?
I got that one time for the dope heads
The people love the streets vs. the feds, yeah
Countin' 'til your thumb numb, hell yeah
Printin' like a money presser, hell yeah
You can smell the Franklins in the air, yeah
Put you in the loop, I make my own laws
Last six summers, we had no falls
And we still stashin' hundreds in the brick walls
Paid my dog commissary almost no cost You don't want no pressure, you don't want no pressure
You don't want no pressure, you don't want no pressure
You don't want no pressure, you don't want no
You don't want no pressure, you don't want no pressure
You don't want no pressure, you don't want no pressure

You don't want no pressure, you don't want noChoppers, choppers, bang, they was lookin' for me

Ain't gon' say no names, probably lookin' for me

Choppers, choppers, bang, they was lookin' for me

Ain't gon' say no names, probably lookin' for me

Choppers, choppers, bang, he a copper, too

Ain't gon' say no names, he a robber, too

Choppers, choppers, bang, he a copper, too

Ain't gon' say no names, he a robber, tooYou don't want no pressure, you don't want no pressure

You don't want no pressure, you don't want no pressure

You don't want no pressure, you don't want no

You don't want no pressure, you don't want no pressure

You don't want no pressure, you don't want no pressure

You don't want no pressure, you don't want no pressure
