

They Should Have Named You Cocaine

Jerrod Niemann

They should have named you Cocaine
You're all in my brain
Drivin' me insane
They should have named you Cocaine
'Cause every time I hold you, honey
I get so high and blow all my money
But I can't complain 'cause I'm feeling no pain
They should have named you Cocaine
Got me writing all these songs
Staying up all night long
Like a fast moving train
They should have named you Cocaine
'Cause every time I hold you, honey
I get so high and blow all my money
But I can't complain 'cause I'm feeling no pain
They should have named you Cocaine
'Cause every time I hold you, honey
I get so high and blow all my money
But I can't complain, no, 'cause I'm feeling no pain
They should have named you Cocaine
I'm feeling no pain
They should have named you Cocaine
